To Whom It May Concern,

These comments are in reference to docket number FAA-1998-4553 concerning FAR 65 Subpart C and Appendix A – Aircraft Dispatchers.

This work is based on an ARAC recommendation to the FAA. The Dispatch Working Group consisted of individuals representing airlines, training schools, the FAA, Transport Canada, unions, human factors experts and interested individuals. The ARAC recommendation was constructed so that it would stand the “test of time” and be user friendly to training schools and students alike.

The FAA, in issuing this NPRM, has accurately characterized the recommendation of the Dispatch Working Group. On behalf of the working group I have only favorable comments concerning this docket item.
